

PENNSYLVANIA COUNCIL OF MEDIATORS
32nd ANNUAL CONFERENCE
April 26-27, 2019
The Harrisburg Hilton

REQUEST FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

The Pennsylvania Council of Mediators is looking for workshop submissions for its 2019 Annual Conference. PCM brings together individuals and organizations that share a common interest in mediation as a method of dispute resolution. Our annual conference provides an opportunity for mediators to network with other mediators, learn new skills and enhance their mediation practice. Our audience is a mixture of attorney-mediators, practitioners with training in social work and the behavioral sciences, volunteer community mediators, and others interested in dispute resolution.

Previous attendees have requested such workshop topics as mediator ethics, working with interpreters, conflict coaching, uncovering bias, family conflict (beyond divorce/custody), court-mandated mediation and mediation confidentiality. However, any workshop that supports a mediator's practice is welcome. You can find a description of the conference and examples of past workshops at www.pamediation.org/conferences.html.

Workshop sessions are 1.5 hours long and will be held on Saturday, April 27, 2019.

Please feel free to forward this form to anyone you think might be interested in submitting a proposal.

Presenters receive complimentary conference registration for the April 27th conference. Note that this does not cover the Pre-conference on April 26th, which is a separate fee. Presenters receive CLE/CEUs for their own workshop at no cost; CLE/CEUs for other parts of the conference will be provided at the regular rate.

If your workshop is accepted we will need your bio, a timed agenda and copies of any handouts to be able to offer CLE and Social Work CEU credits. The presenter does not have to be an attorney/social worker for the workshop to be eligible for CLE/CEU credits.

Please complete the form below to submit your workshop proposal(s). Submissions must be made through this form and emailed, faxed or sent, as indicated on the bottom of the form. We encourage you to submit more than one proposal, in any area relevant to mediation.
